

TEENS SPEAK OUT ON MENTAL HEALTH

a free event open to all

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 29TH • 7-8:30PM

Evanston Public Library
1703 Orrington Ave., Evanston, IL 60201

Based on the annual High School Essay and Multimedia Contest, this presentation will focus on what north suburban teens have to say about stress, and how adults can support them. The presentation will be followed by a panel discussion with a school counselor, a parent, and high school students, and audience Q&A.

1.5 hours of CEUs available for social workers and counselors:
$15 payable at the event by cash or check
